Mission of the Catholic Cemeteries Association of the Archdiocese of Hartford

The Mission of the CCA is to provide for the burial needs of the families of the Archdiocese of Hartford that honors the deep religious significance of the Corporal Work of Mercy of burying the dead and with a firm commitment to the teachings and traditions of the Catholic Church. We treat all families with the deep compassion and understanding that they have entrusted their loved ones to us for eternity.

October 2023-

From the Desk of the Executive Director...

Greetings!

As summer comes to a close and our New England foliage season begins I encourage you and your families to visit your loved ones and spend some time in peaceful remembrance in our cemeteries. We celebrate the lives of our dearly departed and the gift of God's beauty surrounding us.

As you enter the grounds you will notice the newly paved roads, trimmed trees, raised markers and many other continuing improvements your association has been diligently working on.

Please be reminded to SAVE THE DATE on Thursday, November 2nd is the feast of the Solemnity of All Souls. Please join Archbishop Blair for a celebration Mass at All Saints Cemetery in North Haven at 10:00 am. All are welcome to attend.

I wish you and your loved ones a wonderful and blessed October.

God bless you!

Peace,

John Pinone

The Catholic Funeral Plan allows Catholics to make their funeral and cemetery arrangements in advance. The Plan guarantees that, upon your death, the arrangements you've selected will be executed as stated in your Plan, outline and in accordance with the Traditions of the Catholic Faith.

By enrolling in the that your wishes are carried out as you directed and within the guidelines of the Catholic Faith Tradition.

Dramatic changes are taking place today in the way we buy goods and services. Locally-owned banks, grocery stores and drugstores are giving way to regional or national chains. The funeral industry

Burial at the parish.

The Catholic Funeral Plan has been developed to safeguard the Church's sacred burial traditions against the forces of change and to guarantee Catholic families the right to be buried in accordance with these traditions at an affordable cost.

What will the CFP

Catholic Funeral Plan® (CFP), you will be developing a program outline for your funeral service that best suits you. You can choose a funeral home, and select specific arrangements at a cost that meets your budget. At the time of need, your funeral home will make and execute the arrangements.

The CFP will oversee the process, ensuring is no exception. Large, publicly held corporations and regional consolidators are beginning to dominate the industry, driving up prices and changing how funerals are delivered. One of the negative results for Catholic families has been a decrease in the observance of our Church's traditional liturgical rites for the dead, in particular the Mass of Christian

How to Write an Obituary: A Step-by-Step Guide

By Devon Delfino

Updated on July 11, 2022

Among all the types of writing, there are few as personal as writing an obituary. An obituary is meant to inform others about the death, the funeral or memorial service details, and the deceased's familial relationships and impact on their community. Obituaries can be written about anyone who has died, be it a friend, family member, or colleague. Typically, obituaries appear in places like local newspapers, social media, or funeral home websites.

Like many parts of the grieving process, writing an obituary can be challenging. Here's what you should know...
